L. R. SIMS,
Moderator.

APPENDIX.

APPENDIX A—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DECEASED MINISTERS.

We, your Committee on deceased ministers, beg leave to report that we have great reasons to be thankful, and to praise and adore the great head of the church, for the preservation of our ministers through the past year, and may God preserve them to us and make them faithfull watchmen upon the walls of Zion; ready to warn, to teach the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and endure hardness as the good soldier.

Respectfully submitted, J. R. MORRIS Chairman.

APPENDIX B.

We, the committee on nominations, beg leave to make the following report; that we have appointed Bro. Wm. A. Cumbia to preach the introductory sermon at the next annual session of this body. We also recommend the appointment of the following brethren, to compose the Executive committee for the next associational year, viz; J. R. Morris, M. B. Green, E. H. Thomas, P. D. Saunders, and A. B. Fowler, All of which is respectfully submitted. S. WILKINSON, Chairman

APPENDIX C.—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DOCUMENTS.

Your Committee on Documents beg leave to report that they find nothing before them, except an application from Mount Pleasant, Church asking that the next session of this body be held with that Church All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. B. FOWLER, Chairman.

APPENDIX D.—REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

We the Executive Committee, appointed at the last session, of your body, beg leave to submit the following report.

At a meeting of the committee in Columbia last spring, they employed and contracted with Bro. E. M. Knowles, to supply with preaching and other ministerial labors, that particular territory within the bounds of the Judson Association, known as the "desertion."

In accordance with the contract, Bro. Knowles was to devote his whole time during the months of July, August and September within said destitution, and the committee on their part, for the services rendered as above, agreed to pay Bro. Knowles two hundred dollars, out of the funds arising from the pledges, made at the last session of the Association.

Bro. Knowles renders to the committee, as the results of his labors, the following report.

Number of the days engaged in laboring,	93
“ “ Sermons Preached,	140
“ “ Churches Constituted,	1
“ “ Deacons Ordained,	6
“ “ Sabbath Schools Organized,	2
“ “ Persons Baptized,	71
“ “ Reported to Fellowship,	20
“ “ Received by Letter,	21

In addition to the foregoing, Bro. Knowles closes his report with the gratifying announcement, that there is no longer any "desertion," known as such, within the limits of our Association, most of the churches within that particular Territory having called him to serve them the next year: The committee feels that the good results of Bro. Knowles labors prove that their fondest hopes when taking the contract have been more than realized, and recommend that the Treasurer pay Bro. Knowles the amount agreed on to wit, two hundred dollars. All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN T. DAVIS. Chairman.

APPENDIX E.—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Missions are pleased that they are permitted to say, there is no longer any destitution within the bounds of the Judson Association. From the best information we can gather, there is not a single community or person within our limits who is not in reach of the preached gospel, when, but a few years ago, all was a wilderness, and the people sat in darkness and the shadow of death.

Now they are blessed with the gospel, and the privilege of Baptist Churches. And the moral, religious improvement, of their once dark corners, should encourage the liberal christian to feel that the money he has annually given to the mission cause has not been spent in vain. But now that the destitution in our own narrow bounds have been supplied, shall we fold our arms and say we have done enough? may God forbid. The field is the world, and until the Gospel is preached to every creature, we are not at liberty to withhold our Lords money, nor conclude that our part of the mission work is done.

Within the bounds of associations bordering on our own there is a large and alarming destitution; and as brethren bound by the same fraternal ties, and working in the vineyard of the same Lord, should we not enlarge our bounds by helping our brethren in their large destitution, which lies so near the door of our own association?

Much has been done, and there remains much more yet to do, nor should we feel that our efforts may close until all the kingdoms of the world become the kingdoms of Christ.

We suggest no special plan, but leave it to the wisdom of your body, to devise such plans as may seem best for the spread of the Gospel of our blessed Lord. Respectfully Submitted,

D. ROGERS, Chairman.

APPENDIX H—THE WANTS OF ZION—CIRCULAR LETTER.

Dear brethren, one of the great wants of the churches, in our section of the country is scriptural instructions, in the doctrines of grace. Many of our people do not know what the Baptist doctrines are many of our ministers fail to preach the distinction doctrines of scripture either because they do not know them, or because they do not believe them. If it was for the want of knowledge, then it is either the fault of the preacher or the churches to which he preaches.

It is his fault if he wilfully neglects to study the Bible: but if he has not time to study the Scriptures, on account of the pressing wants of his family, then it is the fault of the church or churches which he serves, and you, Dear Brethren of the churches of the Judson Association, if you could be instructed in the great doctrines of grace that distinguish you from all other people, you must untie the hands of your ministers, and cut them loose from all secular employment, so that they may give themselves wholly to the word of God and prayer. This is absolutely necessary in order that the Pastor himself may be able to teach these doctrines, because he can not be expected to teach what he does not know. He can not know these things without study; he can not study without time; he can find no time without means, and he can not have means unless they are supplied by his churches. If he be compelled to raise the means of support by his engagements in a secular calling, he will not have time to study God's word, to understand which requires the minister's whole and undivided time.

God's word requires you to support your ministers; and, if you would have them be able to contend for the faith once delivered to the saints; if you would be properly instructed in these precious doctrines, you must sustain them so that they may scripturally devote themselves to this great work.

A. L. MARTIN.

APPENDIX I—REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE,

We, the committee, report that in consideration of the services of Bro. L. R. Sims in the "destitution," he be paid the sum of twelve dollars. Also, that Bro. P. Belsher, for services rendered in said "destitution," be paid the sum of ten dollars.

J. R. MORRIS, Chairman.

Articles of Faith of the Judson Association.

Art. 1. We believe in the existence of one only true and living God, and that He has made himself known to His people under the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; the same in essence and equal in divine perfection. Exodus. c. xx, v 3, Isa. c, ix, 6-46; Matt, xxiii. 19; Mark xii, 22; John i, 1-4, and v, 23, and x, 30, I John, v, 7

Art. II, We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice. II Sam, xxiii, 2; Acts i 16; II Tim. iii, 16-17; II Peter, i, 21.

Art. III. We believe in the doctrine of election, that God chose his people in Christ before the foundation of the world; that they should be holy and without blame before him in love, having predestined them to the adoption of children by Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His will, Matt. xx, 16, and xxiv, 32; John xiii, 18, and xv, 16-19; Acts xiii. 48; Rom xiii 38-39 and ix, 10-19, and xi 5; Eph i 4-11 I Thess ii 13; I Peter i 2.

Art IV We believe in the doctrine of original sin Gen. vi 5; Psalms v 9; Eccle viii 11; Rom vi 20 and vii 18 and viii 1; I Cor ii 14; Cor. v 14; Eph ii 1-3; Col ii 2-3

Art. V We believe in man's incompetency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature, by his own will and ability John vi 44 45; Rom xi 6; Eph ii 8 9.

Art. VI We believe sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Christ. Isa. lvii, 8; Acts iv, 11; 12; Rom iii, 21-36, and v, 6; viii 9, Art, VII. We believe that God's elect shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Ghost. John vi, 63 and xvi, 13-14; I Cor ii, 10-12; II Cor. i, 10-12; Eph, ii 1-10; II Tim, i 9; Tit,^siii,^s 47.

Art, VIII. We believe that nothing can separate the true believers from the love of God, but that they will be kept by the power of or God through faith unto salvation, John vi, 37, x 28-30, xiii, 23; Phil, 1, 6; Hebrews vi, 7, 8; Peter i, 5,

Art. IX, We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ; that true believers are the only subjects of these ordinances, and that immersion only is baptism.—Matt iii 5-12; Mark i. 5; Luke iii, 3; Acts ii, 38-42; John iii, 23; Rom, vi, 3, 4; Col, ii, 21 I Peter iii, 21; Acts xviii, 8,

Art, X, We believe in the resurrection of the dead, and a general judgment, Job xix, 26 27; Daniel xii 2; Hos. xiii, 14; Mark xii, 24 27; II Cor v 10.

Art, XI, We believe that the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting, and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.—Matthew xxv, 45; II Thess. i, 7-9; Rev, xiv, 9-11; Daniel xii 2; Mark ix, 43, 44; Luke ii, 17 xviii, 25; John iii, 26,

Art. XII, We believe that no minister has a right to admnis ter the ordinances, unless he is called of God, and come under the imposition of hands by a presbytery, and is in fellowship in the church of which he is a member. Isa, Ixvii, 6, Matthew ii, 7, Acts xiv, 23. Romans xii, 6. 7, I Cor i, 1, II Cor, v, 18, Col iv 17, I Tim 1, 12,

DECORUM.

1. Every query sent up to the Association by any Church in this union, shall be read, and put to vote by the Moderator, whether it shall be debated or not; and if there be a majority for it, it shall be taken up and investigated, but if not, shall be withdrawn: provided, always, that those be first considered that affect the union of the Churches.

2. Every motion made and seconded shall come under the observation of the Association, except it be withdrawn by the member who made it,

3. Every person who speaks in debate shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator and shall not be interrupted while speaking, unless he depart from the subject in debate, or use indecorous language.
